

Event Conditions

We are pleased that you are interested in our events. With a binding registration, the following event conditions apply to you.

Cancellation of Events

We reserve the right to cancel the event due to insufficient demand or low number of participants (no later than 2 weeks prior to the scheduled event date) or for other important reasons for which we are not responsible (e.g. sudden illness of the speaker, force majeure). Participation fees already paid by you will of course be refunded. Further liability and compensation claims, which do not concern the injury of life, body or health, are excluded, as far as there is no intent or gross negligence on our part. Please also note this for hotel rooms you have booked, as well as airline or train tickets.

Substitution

You can name a substitute instead of the registered participant at any time. You will not incur any additional costs.

Cancellation

You can withdraw from the contract at any time. This is possible in writing. Cancellation up to 2 weeks before the scheduled start of the event is free of charge. In case of cancellation after 2 weeks before the start of the event, the full participation fee plus VAT will be charged. This also applies in case of non-appearance of the registered participant.
